Description

Description:	ISTRIA, BARBAN - Stone house in a small village Barban is a small historical town located on a plateau that separates the Labin area from the Pula area. The prehistoric hillfort was inhabited by the ancient Romans. Throughout history, Barban was also known for its strategic position, dominating the hill and controlling the valley and the bridge over the Raša River. Over time, the town became a fortress with walls, round and square towers, ramparts, large and small city gates and a castle. Today, Barban is famous for its knightly game Trka na prstenac, wine festival and fig festival. Not far from the picturesque Barban, in a peaceful village, a stone house is for sale. The house extends over the ground floor and the first floor and has approx. 60 m² of living space. The ground floor of the house consists of a kitchen, dining room, living room and bathroom. Internal stairs lead to the first floor of the house where there is a spacious bedroom. The living room opens onto a fenced terrace where a barbecue is located. The house needs minor renovation, The house is connected to the city water supply and electricity. An eco-septic tank was built for wastewater needs. Asphalt access road, Ownership 1/1, No encumbrances, The property is definitely worth your attention,
