Description

Description:	Kaiser Immobilien offers a building plot with a view of the sea, an area of 881 m² next to an asphalted road. The land is located on the edge of a small autochthonous Istrian village, the widely known and popular tourist town of Sveti Lovreč, only 20 km from the city of Poreč and the first beaches. In this case of land sale, a unique opportunity is offered, namely this land is located next to the remaining 14 building plots that the seller is separating and will offer for sale individually or the entire plot in one piece. The seller has started the process of subdividing the land, and with the new plan he will receive 15 plots of 700/800 m² each. Another road is planned between the lots that will connect the entire settlement. The entire area is 13,000 m². Access to the lands is provided from two sides, they have two access roads, one is asphalted and the other is white macadam. Infrastructure in the immediate vicinity. The plots are on elevated ground and have a view of the sea. The plots are for construction and offer the possibility of building houses with a
