surrounding villages, vineyards, olive groves and Učka Mountain can be enjoyed from all sides. Pićan is known for its beautiful viewpoints and good wine, as well as for many famous legends. There is also a bell tower built here, the third largest in Istria, 48 m high. The famous hiking trails of St. Roch and St. Simon, as well as the beautiful Sopot waterfall, are well-known. In a peaceful setting not far from the town itself, this modern single-storey house under construction is located, which includes 80.82 m² of living space. This property is a perfect combination of contemporary design and comfort, providing an ideal space for families or all those looking for a peaceful retreat close to nature. The villa offers a spacious kitchen, dining room and living room, which are perfectly connected into one open "open space" area. Below are two comfortable bedrooms, each with its own bathroom, a laundry room and an additional guest toilet. The villa is located on a plot of approximately 200 m², which has a space for socializing with family and friends and a beautiful swimming pool for those warm summer days. Two parking spaces are provided for your tin pets. A children's park will also be built across the street from the villa for carefree children's play.
