Description

Description: A small Montenegrin village called Peroj is located on the beautiful Southwestern coast of the Istrian peninsula, the village is rich in historical heritage, and wonderfully located with a beautiful old town core. The old town center and most of the basic necessary facilities in Peroj are located on a beautiful hill that offers a beautiful view of the sea and the Brijuni islands, the village also has a coastline with beautiful beaches and a newly renovated promenade, which raises its level of quality year after year by investing in the aforementioned content and culture . Right in Peroj, not far from the sea and within walking distance from the center, there is this attractive building plot of 455 m2. The plot is a rarity considering the built-up area of the settlement, and it is in an ideal position whether the future owner wants to build a family house or a property for renting out catering activities. The land has a neat access road. It is possible to buy several plots. The mentioned real estate represents an extremely attractive and interesting real estate due to its excellent location, access road, shape, proximity to well-maintained beaches, and offers the future owner the possibility of building a building for family housing or the possibility of building a building for the catering business, renting them out, and a very quick return on invested funds.
